

don't become an airspace infringement statistic before you fly...

do a free narrow-route NOTAM check at www.ais.org.uk

check today's temporary airspace restrictions
- freephone
0500 354 802

in the air...

use your transponder
- check the squawk, turn it on and set to ALT

use a current chart
as well as GPS

unsure of your position? get a position fix

why take these actions? see www.flyontrack.co.uk/tips

R/T - sound professional increase your chances of transiting a zone

- just fill in the blanks

(Airfield or ATC unit name) G-XXXX request zone transit

(ATC) - G-XXXX pass your message

G-XXXX type

from (departure)

to (destination)

current position

level (pressure

request zone transit VFR/IFR/SVFR* via.....

(*if SVFR, ETA at zone boundary is required)

if asked to report your position
- just fill in the blanks

G-XXXX

position time

level (pressure

next position ETA

for more detailed information look at CAP413 in the publications section of the CAA website at www.caa.co.uk